

Map work and World knowledge

Oceans and continents

Key vocabulary

Oceans
Continents
Australia
The Northern Territory
London
Big Ben
River Thames
House of Parliament

Australia - The Northern Territory

Where is the Northern Territory?

The Northern Territory is in Australia. It shares borders with Queensland, South Australia and Western Australia. It covers about 1.3 million kilometres of land. The capital city of the Northern Territory is Darwin.

What are the physical features of the Northern Territory?

The physical geography of the Northern Territory include, open forests, grasslands, shrublands dessert, sand and canyons.

What are the human features of the Northern Territory ?

The human features of the Northern Territory include, villages, farms and tourist attractions.